3. Which attribute of God is most important for being able to trust in Him?
 - a) Sovereign
 - b) All-Powerful
 - c) Loving
 - d) Jealous
 - e) Righteous
 - f) All-Sufficient

DIGGING DEEPER

4. Reflecting on Sunday's message on trusting God, what part impacted you the most?

5. We talked Sunday about the reality that your ability to trust someone depends on what you know about them and the experiences you have with them. The same is true of trusting in God.
 - a) When you are anxious or struggle to trust in God, what knowledge (truth) about God helps you to trust in Him?

 - b) What Bible verse or passage reveals that truth to you?

c) What are the experiences you have had with God that help you to trust in Him?

6. What is your favorite Bible story about someone trusting in God? Read the Bible passage describing that event and write down the knowledge of God or the experience with God that helped that person trust in God.

7. Throughout the Bible, there are benefits and promises listed for those who trust in God. Read the following passages and write down how each verse describes the benefits of trusting in God. Which passage strikes you as the greatest?

Proverbs 3:5-6

Jeremiah 17:7-8

Isaiah 26:3

Isaiah 25:9

Rom 15:13

Psalms 34:8-10

Prov 29:25

Psalms 112:7

8. What is the ultimate act of trust in God? Recall when you took that step of faith and what evidences led you to that act of trust.
