

iServe 2018 Conference Speakers

Daniel and Esther - For the past 18 years Daniel and Esther have dedicated their life to pursuing the Lord's heart and creating a place for people to encounter God in worship. Since 2002, they have been working full time with Youth With a Mission; where they have served in many different leadership capacities, and have had the honor of traveling the world, leading worship, and teaching. Daniel's heart is to see the convergence of worship, intercession, and missions in the body of Christ; and believes that this is key to see the gospel of Jesus proclaimed in every nation.

Matt Walton has been involved with youth & children's ministry for more than two decades. He earned a Master's of Christian Education from Campbell University Divinity School in Buies Creek, North Carolina in 2000. Matt has served churches in various capacities ranging from a Sunday school teacher to a full-time youth and children's minister.

In 2012 Matt and his wife Stacey moved to Hawaii to serve with Child Evangelism Fellowship of Hawaii. From day one, Matt & Stacey have felt at home in Hawaii. Matt works to train children's ministry leaders and coordinate Bible based clubs for children in public schools throughout Oahu and now right here on Molokai.

Christophe Ulysee is not only an instructor for University of the Nations he is also a graduate as well. A gifted teacher, preacher and evangelist Christophe travels the globe sharing the good news of Jesus, encouraging believers in their faith as well as training in evangelism and leadership. He knows first hand the struggles of serving in ministry having served in various ministry positions over the years including that of pastor at New City Church.

Jesse Wilson grew up on five acres of land with horses, dogs, and many other animals in a small mainland town. He is the middle child of a family of eight, seven boys and one girl. He has been with YWAM for six years and leading the School of Biblical Studies for three of them. During the course of that time his life has been radically transformed by the love of Jesus and the truth of his word." He has a heart for people and a desire for them to understand the depth and riches of the Bible.

Dr. Hale Akamine grew up on Kauai and received his PhD in clinical psychology from the University of Hawaii. He has been in practice for over 27 years helping individuals, couples and families rebuild the hope only possible through the redeeming power of Christ. Dr. Akamine currently is the Executive Director and Clinical Psychologist at Family Ministries Center of Hawaii. He is an author and frequent conference speaker.

Dr. Pat Zukeran is the founder and president of Evidence and Answers, an apologetics ministry based on Oahu. Professor Norman Geisler called Dr. Zukeran, “one of the top Asian-American apologists in the world.” He hosts a daily radio show heard on KGU 99.5 FM and is an instructor at Pacific Rim University. He is a frequent speaker in churches, conferences and seminars in the US and Asia.

Tom and Marti Chance are the Awana* representatives for the US West Coast and South Pacific. They have a heart for reaching children with the good news of the gospel and for seeing churches equipped to do children’s ministry with excellence. They bring with them years of ministry experience and training and a love for Jesus.

* Awana is a world-wide nonprofit ministry focused on providing Bible-based evangelism and discipleship solutions for ages 2-18. As the global leader in child and youth discipleship, Awana gives children the opportunity to know, love and serve Jesus, no matter their background.