

iServe 2019 Conference Speakers

At the last two iServe Conferences God has blessed us with some great speakers and workshop leaders and this year is no exception. In the line up for iServe 2019 we have several returning speakers and several who will be with us for the first time. Below is a list of the workshop leaders along with a brief bio.

Anne "Annie" Hubach is a pastoral counselor in a church-sponsored ministry in Bedford, Virginia. She has her M.A. in Human Services Counseling as well as a B.A. in Spanish and Education. She is a certified teacher (K-12) and marriage counselor (SYMBIS and Prepare and Enrich) and is currently in the doctoral program for Community Care and Counseling at Liberty University with a focus on marriage and family counseling. Hubach is the mother of five, including a son with severe intellectual disabilities, and is a proud grandmother. Hubach was a missionary to Bolivia where she coached a national volleyball team and taught English. She has been an educator for 35 years as well as a Bible teacher, volleyball coach and swim coach.

Matt Walton has been involved with youth & children's ministry for more than two decades. He earned a Master's of Christian Education from Campbell University Divinity School in Buies Creek, North Carolina in 2000. Matt has served churches in various capacities ranging from a Sunday school teacher to a full-time youth and children's minister. In 2012 Matt and his wife Stacey moved to Hawaii to serve with Child Evangelism Fellowship of Hawaii. From day one, Matt & Stacey have felt at home in Hawaii. Matt works to train children's ministry leaders and coordinate Bible based clubs for children in public schools throughout Oahu and now right here on Molokai.

Christer Bergus is the head of the Biblical Studies Department at the University of the Nations in Kona, Hawaii. Along with leading this department he also teaches courses on topics such as Bible Overview, Origins and Worldview, as well as individual books of the Bible. Christer has sought to educate U of N students with a foundation of the Bible to better serve the greater body of Christ with the vision of eradicating Bible illiteracy throughout the world. Christer has helped to expand opportunities for all students at the U of N in Kona to interact with the Bible outside of class time through the launching of regular public Bible Studies, Question and Answer evening events, and Bible Study seminars.

For the past 19 years Daniel and Esther have dedicated their life to pursuing the Lord's heart and creating a place for people to encounter God in worship. Since 2002, they have been working full time with Youth with a Mission; where they have served in many different leadership capacities, and have had the honor of traveling the world, leading worship, and teaching. Daniel's heart is to see the convergence of worship, intercession, and missions in the body of Christ; and believes that this is key to see the gospel of Jesus proclaimed in every nation.

Meet the Loos. Fabian, a retired police commander and Mona, a retired Honolulu police officer now keep themselves very busy through a variety of ministries. They are the co-founders of One Heart Marriage Retreat that brings hope and healing to married couples through biblical marriage training in a retreat setting. They are also a part of All Things Possible Ministries, a faith-based organization that works on a global scale to free children from abuse and the effects of trauma. —Fabian is the State Director for ATP and Mona is on staff. Through ATP the minister weekly to young men and women locked up in Hawaii's juvenile facility. They both love the Lord and love to teach His Word.

Christophe Ulysee is not only an instructor for University of the Nations he is also a graduate as well. A gifted teacher, preacher and evangelist Christophe travels the globe sharing the good news of Jesus, encouraging believers in their faith as well as training in evangelism and leadership. He knows firsthand the struggles of serving in ministry having served in various ministry positions over the years including that of pastor at New City Church. Christophe has been a favorite speaker at the last two iServe Conferences and he is excited about being with us again.

Frank and April Figueroa live and minister on Oahu. Frank was born and raised on Oahu. He and April have been married for 21 years. April is a teacher at Hawaii Baptist Academy and Frank is the pastor of Waipio Grace Brethren Church. Frank has been involved in a variety of ministries over the years. He was the lead guitarist for a Christian rock band, a science teacher at Hawaii Baptist Academy, Youth/Young Adult/Missions Pastor at Calvary Chapel Pearl Harbor and has been pastoring for the past 13 years. Due in part to his background in education, Frank is an enthusiastic speaker for audiences of all ages. He has spoken at a variety of camps, conferences, school chapel services, home-school seminars, and many other venues. He also currently runs Centershot Hawaii, which is an archery ministry which allows him the opportunity to share the gospel to the youth within his community.

Jesse Wilson grew up on five acres of land with horses, dogs, and many other animals in a small mainland town. He is the middle child of a family of eight, seven boys and one girl. He has been with YWAM for seven years and leading the School of Biblical Studies for three of them. During the course of that time his life has been radically transformed by the love of Jesus and the truth of his word." He has a heart for people and a desire for them to understand the depth and riches of the Bible.
